

Thanks!
to all our sponsors

---

PSU, db design, etc...and you!

Global Portland Festival

hope begins when fear ends

SUNDAY
SEPTEMBER 12, 2004
Noon to 6 PM

SW Park Blocks
between Jackson and College Streets
behind Portland State University

FREE & FAMILY-FRIENDLY!

PRESENTED BY:
PSU Multicultural Center &
Community Language and Culture Bank

2004 GLOBAL PORTLAND FESTIVAL

SECOND STAGE

2:30 pm

Peace and Justice Singers

Group singing for children and adults.

3 pm

Body Moves Studio

Group movement.

3:45 pm

Children's Storytelling

Presented by Reflections Bookstore.

4:45 pm

BroadArts Theater

BroadArts Theatre celebrates the contributions of women and minorities in creating a more equal, peaceful, compassionate and just society.

CHILDREN'S AREA

World Fare

The "Global Chef" brings kids snack foods from all around the globe.

Origami paper folding

with Noriko

Kids' activities from the Middle East

Temporary "henna" tattoos

AND MORE!

MAIN STAGE

NOON Roberto Gonzalez Group

This Cuban group grooves for social change.

12:45 Sharita

Egyptian belly dancing. Experience why Elinor Friedberg is prominent in Portland's belly dance scene.

1:00 Sobotka

Traditional Polish dances.

1:30 Parfait

Rapper from Benin, performing in both French and English.

2:00 Mark Mathabane

Mark Mathabane's stunning true story, Kaffir Boy, about his coming of age under apartheid in South Africa has touched the hearts of millions.

2:45 râz

The name râz comes from Farsi (Persian) meaning secret. And in a way, râz is the northwest's best kept secret, as far as world music is concerned.

3:35 Agnieszka Laska Dancers

Laska's rapidly developing modern dance company is noted for its intense emotion, high production aesthetic and tight interpretation of live music on stage. Modern dance inspired by Slavic folklore.

4:10 Children of Paradise

American Tribal Dancing. Featuring Jonathan Howitt, John Hawkwood, Kevin Bayliss and Stashia Cabral.

5:00 Sisters in Action for Power

"Uncover the Truth Behind the Masks: Don't Believe Mask Media"

5:15 Loveness Wesa

African dance.

HAPPENINGS
on the Festival Lawn

The
Portland Jugglers
will entertain spontaneously!

Look for the Community Building Picnic sponsored by Our United Villages!

The entire family
will enjoy
Group Games from Faraway Lands!

TEACH-IN AT THE PSU MULTICULTURAL CENTER

Smith Memorial Student Union
Second Floor, Rm 228

1 pm

Nancy Luna Jiminez

Race relations workshop

2 pm

Religious Pluralism Forum

Featuring Women's Voices

3 pm

Kayse Jama, CLCB founder

Storytelling workshop: The Personal and Collective Impact of Sept. 11

4 pm

Gabi Ross

Workshop: The Making of an Enemy"

5 pm

Weapons of Mass Destruction

Featuring Iranian-American Goudarz Eghtedari (Iran & Nuclear Aspirations), Catherine Thomasson from Physicians for Social Responsibility, and Pritam K. Rohila, Ph.D. (India & Pakistan)

